

APE Lit. & Comp. Assignments
Weeks 15 & 16 (November 25-December 6, 2013)

Monday, November 25, 2013: Students turned in work over "The Hollow Men" and most turned in their major works data sheets. The teacher reminded students about the Heart of Darkness Challenge, and students then turned their attention toward reading and noting similarities of content and themes between four poems and Heart of Darkness.

Tuesday, November 26, 2013: Three students attended class. They were allowed to study, read, or complete other tasks in the classroom.

Monday, December 2, 2013: Students completed a pre-reading activity for The Glass Menagerie.

Tuesday, December 3, 2013: Students reviewed their scored timed writings over Heart of Darkness. Students viewed introductory information about Tennessee Williams' life and career, as well as some information about the modernist techniques he used in writing The Glass Menagerie. Students began reading the play, and are to have read through the first two scenes before returning to class tomorrow.

Wednesday, December 4, 2013: Students read through scene three in class. Some classes read part or all of scene four. Students are to have read through the first four scenes of The Glass Menagerie before returning to class tomorrow.

Thursday, December 5, 2013: Due to inclement weather conditions, the superintendent closed all schools in Fort Smith.

Friday, December 6, 2013: Due to inclement weather conditions, the superintendent closed all schools in Fort Smith.
